

VIRGINIA BEAT WEST VIRGINIA

All of Their Seven Runs Were Piled Up in a Single Inning.

A PRETTY GAME OTHERWISE

The Fielding of the Visitors Was the Best Seen in Many Months.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 25.—The West Virginia University baseball team, on its initial trip South, played its first game with the University of Virginia to-day, the Old Dominion team winning, 7 to 1. For six innings the contest was clean and hard fought, and perhaps the prettiest ever witnessed this early in any former season. Up to that time but one hit had been made, and it looked as if both teams would be blanked. In the seventh, however, the visitors launched their errors, the field going practically to pieces, allowing the Virginians to tally several runs. In the final inning the Virginia infield became careless, making four errors in succession, thus permitting West Virginia to get one man across the home plate.

Were Both Southpaws.

Tollard and Seay, the opposing twirlers, were both southpaws and good ones. The former appeared to be at his best, having a plenty of speed and good control. He allowed but one hit and struck out nine men. Seay, who pitched for West Virginia, had splendid curves and a slow, deceptive ball, which was quite hard to swing, and but for the rugged support given him in the seventh inning would have blanked his opponents.

Leaving out the play in the seventh inning, the West Virginia team gave the best exhibition of defense seen on the local grounds since the visit of the North Carolina "Varsity" nine here four years ago. The in and outfielders worked with the precision of professionals, and were liberally cheered throughout by the large crowd of spectators.

Chandler a Star.

Virginia's infield also showed the effect of good coaching and the benefit derived from the practice games with the Washington league team. Chandler, who has been under the care of Kiltree, fairly outdid himself, letting no chance slip by. The errors, all of which came in the last inning, were on easy chances. Springer, the Virginia centerfielder, who played last year on West Virginia, opened up the seventh with a clean single over second. A couple of wild throws and the failure of the infielders to handle some hot drives, together with another single, enabled Virginia to score a total of seven runs. Jones and Rowe also got in some good slick work, but the hits came too far apart.

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Cincinnati Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

Mrs. Sara Wilson

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—About nine months ago I was a great sufferer with womb trouble, which caused me severe pain, extreme nervousness and frequent headaches, from which the doctor failed to relieve me. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and within a short time felt better, and after taking five bottles of it I was entirely cured. I therefore heartily recommend your Compound as a splendid uterine tonic. It makes the monthly periods regular and without pain, and what a blessing it is to find such a remedy after so many doctors fail to help you. I am pleased to recommend it to all suffering women.

Mrs. Sara Wilson, 31 East 83 Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you have suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, leucorrhoea, flooding, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitable, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, some derangement of the uterus or ovarian trouble. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FAYETTEVILLE WINS.

Suit Involving Much Money Decided in Its Favor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March 25.—E. B. Bain, of Raleigh, appointed by Judge Purnell, is here to take an inventory of the property of the Fayetteville Water Works Company, and make an estimate of its earnings since August 15, 1904. This is a case where, under the franchise, the city at the expiration of a term of years, had a right to assume ownership on tendering appraised value, $70,000. This was done and a suit was the consequence, won by the city.

Mr. McCaw to Run.

A Question of Law.

(2). Then how would you find the correct cords out of 36,000 cubic feet?

A. L. C.

(1). 18,000 pounds divided by 60 pounds, gives 300 bushels of wheat.

(2). 36,000 cu. ft. divided by 128 cu. ft. gives 281 1/4 cords of wood.

Problem in Arithmetic.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Will you please work this example for me, to settle a dispute? Two men, or three boys can plow an acre in one-sixth of a day. How long will it take three men and two boys to plow it?

Please work this example in proportion, and oblige.

A SCHOLAR.

It seems two men do same work as three boys—that is, plow an acre in one-sixth day. Both together would do it in half the time, or one-twelfth day, because there are twice as many workmen.

An Indefinite Question.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—If a man should be passing through the neighborhood of another man, and the latter, without any authority or just cause, so pursue the former as to cause the former to lose his life in trying to escape, would not the latter be guilty of murder in the eyes of the law in Virginia? If not guilty of murder, of what?

Respectfully, OLD SUBSCRIBER.

This question is so indefinite that we cannot give an answer.

The Law of Inheritance.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—I have a cow and it strays to B's farm two miles away and dies there with no evidence as to what cause, then is B responsible for the value of the said cow, and what is the law in regard to such?

A SUBSCRIBER.

B is not responsible. To hold him responsible in any way, C would have to show that B had killed or in some way caused the death of the cow.

The Wife's Portion.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Please answer the following questions: If a woman dies, leaving several brothers and sisters, and one sister dies after she does, leaving no children, or rather, never having had any, can her husband come into any share of the money left by his wife's sister, or does his wife's share go to her other brothers and sisters?

2. What share does a woman get of her husband's money if he dies, leaving no will, the wife never having given birth to a child?

IGNORAMUS.

1. Goes to other brothers and sisters.

2. One-third.

Name of Divorcee.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Please tell me through your Queries and Answers the following: Has a woman a legal right to bear her divorced husband's name, and if so, how many times, can she still retain his name? Then if she should marry again would the marriage be legal if she married under her divorced husband's name?

Unless the court in the suit in which the divorce is granted decrees otherwise, the woman retains the name of her husband; and she continues to keep the name, although he marries again, until she marries again.

Morris Island.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Once upon a time, long long ago, there was a besieged city called Charleston and the chief line of attack by land was along a narrow strip of land with water on both sides. In the middle of the length of which was a defensive work, built of palmetto logs and sand-bags, called Battery Wagner, the defense of which against artillery-fire from land and sea, and at last against assault, was thought at the time to be gallant and noteworthy. And the name of that forgotten strip of land was Morris Island.

Surely chloroform time has come for the people of that remote age.

FOUR VIGOROUS OLD SOULS IN ONE FAMILY

"It has imparted new vitality and strength into our time-worn bodies and lengthened our lives," is the eloquent tribute of this quartet of octogenarians.

Each One Owes Ripe Old Age, Health, Vigor and Peace of Mind to DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY.

There are nearly 4,000 centenarians in the United States. The last census shows that in the United States, with a population of 76,000,000, there are 1,289 men and 2,247 women of one hundred years of age or more. The leading nations of Europe have but half as many with more than twice the population.

HOW TO LIVE TO BE ONE HUNDRED

Quite a large number of these old people were recently interviewed and asked as to what they especially attributed their great age. In nearly every case the answer was laid work, freedom from worry, careful living, fresh air and Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, taken regularly according to directions. Duffy's is an absolutely pure, health-giving, life-preserving, tonic-stimulant, prescribed by all leading physicians and used in prominent hospitals.

MRS. MARY EILER, 96 Years. PETER MUTCH, 88 Years. MRS. CATHERINE MUTCH, 85 Years. MRS. MARGARET OVINGER, 83 Years.

Beware of our imitators who advertise cheap combinations of drugs and dangerous narcotics to prolong life. Don't let these imitators and substitutes mislead you. There is only one true elixir of life—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

The earnest and convincing statement of the four members, hale and hearty, of this well known and highly respected family as to the invigorating qualities of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY in nourishing and keeping alive the vital spark, and bringing into full play all the forces of life, after they have been run down by sickness, worry, old age, or chronic disease, comes almost in the nature of a revelation, and yet the cordial endorsement of these worthy old people is similar to that of thousands of men and women who have been rescued from suffering and enabled to reach a ripe old age, by the regular and systematic use of this grand invigorator and tonic stimulant.

For nearly a half century Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been prescribed by doctors, and used exclusively in over 2,000 leading hospitals, as the greatest tonic, strengthener and health-builder known to medicine. It is the only positive preventive and cure of consumption, pneumonia, grip, rheumatism, bronchitis, coughs, colds, malaria, low fevers, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and every form of lung, bowel and stomach trouble. It aids digestion, soothes and quiets the tired and jaded nerves, enriches the blood, quickens the heart's action and circulation, tones up and strengthens the whole system. It cures by destroying the poisonous disease germs and driving them from the system.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a promoter of health and long life. It makes the old hale and hearty and in the enjoyment of the blessings and activities of life, and enables the young with a vigorous manhood that enables the possessor to successfully combat all the emergencies of life. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fuel oil and it is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine.

CAUTION.—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Dishonest dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations and substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand Duffy's and be sure you get it. Sold by every reliable druggist and grocer in the country, or direct, $1.00 a bottle. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal on the cork is unbroken.

That the respective cities and counties can hold their primaries—any time the local committees determine?

"DEMOCRAT."

1. August 8th-September 9th.

2. The time of holding local primaries is determined by the local committees.

Cigarette Smoking.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Will you kindly say through Sunday's issue if there is any harm in smoking a youth from cigarette smoking? Also if it be not dangerous to swallow the smoke?

Respectfully, MRS. I. D. B.

There is much virtue in the remedy called "switching." Your doctor can probably recommend a harmless drug that will destroy the appetite for tobacco. "Swallowing" the smoke means taking it into the lungs, and that is the most dangerous and injurious part of cigarette smoking. The boy who keeps at it will surely shatter his health and grow up to be a weakling.

A String of Questions.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Please answer in Sunday's issue the following questions:

1. What is the population of Nevada and what is its area?

2. What are the names and what is the population of the five largest cities in the world?

3. What was the population of Richmond when the last census was taken, and what is the population now?

Yours truly, J. T. B.

1. Area, 110,700 square miles; population, 42,355.

2. London, 4,536,541; New York, 3,437,202; Paris, 2,714,068; Berlin, 1,888,818; Chicago, 1,698,675.

3. Population in 1900, $3,650. Richmond has not enlarged her borders in many years. Her population, including towns on her outer borders, is in the neighborhood of 115,000.

The Law as to Fish.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:—Sir,—Is there any law to prevent fishermen from using a seine under a certain mesh? The reason I ask the question is mesh that millions of river perch, weighing two ounces and less, are being brought to this market.

Now if this is continued, won't the fish in our rivers have been soon given out? I say let this be stopped in some way and give the fish a little chance to grow.

J. W. P.

Except as to pound nets, there is no law regulating the size of meshes in nets.

Virginia Code, section 2084, provides that "no pound nets set in any of the waters of this State shall have meshes less than two inches stretched measure." Penalty, fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

Virginia Code, section 2113a—Fishing in James and Chickahominy Rivers; penalty: "It shall be unlawful for any person to fish with, use or set any pound net or pursue net in any of the waters of James and Chickahominy Rivers. . . . Any person violating the provisions of this act . . . shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment . . . not exceeding three months."

Hon. E. P. Bunford, of Brunswick, was in the city yesterday. When seen at Murphy's, Mr. Bunford said if Governor Montague should make an active fight for the United States Senatorship this fall, he felt sure he would win.

Astor Making Extensive Alterations and Additions—Erecting Small Village.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)

(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.) LONDON, March 25.—Mr. Astor, who purchased Haver Castle, about a year ago from Captain Sebright, is making extensive alterations and additions not only to the building itself, but to the surrounding lands.

Nearly eight hundred navvies and other workmen are employed, for although Captain Sebright personally superintended the restoration of the castle when he purchased it, he found it in a state of ruin, and the ancient moat is to be supplemented by two large lakes, while the changing of the course of the River Eden, the building of a new portion of the high road, the wholesale cutting down of many century old apple trees and the general alteration of the quaint, picturesque castle itself are doubtless a necessary part of such a gigantic scheme of improvements.

Quite a small village is being constructed around the castle. The houses are being built of solid carved oak, the ground floor panels, and the chimneys, gables, windows and doors in the Tudor style, to match the principal building. A large deer park is also in course of being laid out, surrounded by a high fence of oak stakes.

Mr. Van Allen is coming very much to the fore in the way of entertaining, and when his house in Northamptonshire is completed he intends to have many large house parties down there.

He continues to spend vast sums on the property, of which he has only a forty years' lease, and so great is the work of alteration and improvement that some of his friends say it will never be finished, though Mr. Van Allen himself hopes to entertain his first party there next Christmas.
